SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE

Dear Sirs:

On March 4, 2002, an Amendment was submitted with respect to the above-identified U.S. patent application. The Amendment addressed several issues set forth in an Office Action dated December 3, 2001 including an obviousness-type double patenting issue concerning reportedly U.S. Patent No. 6,216,895. Attached to the Amendment was a Terminal Disclaimer concerning that patent.

However, subsequent to the filing of the Amendment and the Terminal Disclaimer, it was noted, that a transcriptional error occurred in the Office Action and the responsive Terminal Disclaimer. More particularly, the patent identified in the Office Action and the subsequent Terminal Disclaimer was 6,216,895, which should be 6,213,895. In order to overcome any difficulties which may have been created by such a submission, please substitute therefor the attached corrected Terminal Disclaimer.

If any questions are raised by the above information, and/or the attached materials, the Examiner is invited to contact Applicants' representative at the number listed below.

Respectfully submitted,

FAY, SHARPE, FAGAN,
MINNICH & McKEE, LLP
